George J. McLaughlin, O.S.A.

Albert W. Burns

A warm smile . . . discussion on the supply and demand curves . . . a humorous anecdote . . . the problems of inflation . . . a friendly chat . . . the theories of Adam Smith—memories of an economics class for so many, and Fr. McLaughlin was the professor.

Rev. George McLaughlin died suddenly last December. What is ironic, however, is that Fr. McLaughlin was preparing to fly to Scranton, Pa. to meet his sister, Alice, when on the same day he was to leave, he was stricken with a heart attack.

Fr. McLaughlin entered the Augustinian Order in 1933. He received his bachelor's degree from Villanova University and his master's in economics from the Catholic University. After serving as chaplin in the Army, he was positioned at Villanova and was then transferred to Merrimack College.

There were various activities, however that contributed to the character of the late Fr. McLaughlin. In speaking to some priests who knew him intimately, he was regarded as a good community person.

The faculty of Merrimack found him willing to serve on campus committees and valued his advice. One example of this is the curriculum committee to which Fr. McLaughlin contributed his services. As many people know, numerous proposals were offered for the changes in curriculum. Furthermore, these programs required extensive study which took many hours of reading besides great patience. Fr. McLaughlin played his part in this project.

While in the classroom, he offered numerous insights into Economics and tried to be as helpful as he could in teaching a rather difficult subject.

Fr. McLaughlin was a dedicated man who will be missed by all on the Merrimack College Campus.

Dr. Albert W. Burns, Jr. was born on September 16, 1924 in Winthrop, Mass. Dr. Burns received his college education at Mt. Carmel Junior and Senior Seminary in Ontario, Canada. He furthered his studies to obtain a master's degree from Boston College in 1950 and recently received his doctorate from Boston University in the early part of June. Previous to his position at Merrimack, he taught at Boston College.

We at Merrimack grieve the loss of a devoted faculty member and dedicated teacher who has been with the college for the past several years. This, it is seen fitting that a memorial trust fund be established in Dr. Burns' name. At present, a committee has been created for this purpose, but the plans concerning the use of this fund are still in their early stages.

For the students who knew him . . . they also feel a loss. Whether the lecture be about Chaucer, Wordsworth, or Frost, the students of Dr. Burns knew that his professor possessed true insight into English literature and poetry—an insight that comes only with immense knowledge and experience in the subject.

Merrimack will miss seeing his frequent walks about the campus and also his friendly chats on the library terrace with his students. But, most of all, it will miss a man who could share his ideas in the subject he loved and who made this sharing rewarding to others.

CAMPUS LIFE

We have returned to sit and think,
Learn and share,
So that we may remake ourselves anew.

JUNIOR WEEK

There is no cure for birth and death
save to enjoy the interval.

George Santayana

JUNIOR PROM

You shall above all things be glad and young.
For if you're young, whatever life you wear it will become you; and if you are glad whatever's living will yourself become.

I love the jocund dance,
The softly-breathing song,
Where innocent eyes do glance,
And where lisps the maiden's tongue.

William Blake

The world's great age begins anew,
The golden years return,
The earth doth like a snake renew
Her winter weeds outworn:
Heaven smiles, and faiths and empires gleam,
Like wrecks of a dissolving dream.

Mr. Robert Lindley

Mr. Joseph Crilly

To the students of Merrimack College:

The publication of this year's MERRIMACKAN has been at times trying and difficult, but above all, meaningful and rewarding for all those connected with it.

The purpose of a yearbook is to capture the experiences of the past academic year. I hope you feel that we have accomplished this task.

We have tried to reflect, through innovations in this year's book, changes that have taken place on the college campus. This is the first year that modern techniques were employed in color photography. This is also the first year that the Campus Life section, the most interesting division of the entire yearbook, has been greatly increased.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the staff and especially the department editors, without whose invaluable help and dedicated work this book would never have been completed. I would also like to extend my gratitude to our business managers who made it a financial success for the first time in many years. I would like to give special thanks to Fr. O'Malley for his faith and cooperation and Mr. Joseph Donovan of Wm. J. Keller Inc., Publishing Company for his time and assistance.

I would also like to thank Merrimack College for allowing me the opportunity to serve as Editor-in-Chief. It has been an unforgettable experience from which I have gained many satisfactions and fulfillments.

Sincerely,
Michael J. Landers
Editor-in-Chief

Reverend Harry J. Erdlen, O.S.A., Moderator Of The Class of 1970.

MANY THANKS

FROM THE CLASS OF 1970
